Dear Guarantor (s):

In order for Van Raden Properties, Inc. to accept and process the Application of Guarantor and the Residential Lease Guaranty papers for a potential resident(s), the following listed items must be followed.

1. Only the information from the individual(s) who has/have signed both the Application of Guarantor and the Residential Lease Guaranty papers will be considered for processing. If two individuals are providing employment/ income information, the Application of Guarantor, the Residential Lease Guaranty and the Release of Information form must be signed by both individuals.
2. All applications must include the individual(s) Social Security number. Applications that do not provide this number will not be processed.
3. Signature(s) on the Residential Lease Guaranty must be notarized to be valid. If a signature is not notarized, the application will not be processed. The Residential Lease Guaranty is a legal binding document. If any additional written statement is added to the Residential Lease Guaranty form, it will not be processed.
4. Guarantor(s) must have a minimum monthly income of $2375.00 and/or at least five (5) to six (6) times the monthly rent of $475.00. All guarantors who are self-employed will be required to verify their annual income either by providing their most recent copy of their Federal Income Tax Return Form 1040 which shows the adjusted gross income.
2 most recent Pay Stubs
5.  Please return all paperwork within five (5) business days. If there is more than a 5-day delay in the return the Application of Guaranty, the Residential Lease Guaranty and the Release of Information form, the potential resident's application may be rejected. If desired, in order to speed processing of the potential resident's application, these forms may be faxed. But remember, the original completed forms must be returned before the potential resident will be allowed to move into the rental property.
6. All information provided to Van Raden Properties, Inc. remains confidential. We do not release the personal information of any of our residents/guarantors to any outside source (banks, credit unions, credit card companies, insurance companies, etc.) except for emergencies and information required by the utility company, in order to establish service to that rental property.

If you have any questions regarding the Application of Guarantor and/or the Residential Lease Guaranty, please contact Linda or Tom with Van Raden Properties, Inc. at 218-233-2731.

If you need to fax and/or mail the Application of Guarantor and the Residential Lease Guaranty, please fax and/or mail the paperwork to the following fax number and the Resident Manager's address.
